his car. One day, about a week ago, he was going down a steep hill, lost control of the automobile and was instantly killed.
Write to me, if you have time - for as you will know, they are very welcome. God bless you - dear friend - and "good night".

Your faithful friend

Dear friend, Mr. Muir - Have you been ill? or have you given all your attention to your Alaska book?
I often think of you, and wonder if I am ever to see you again. you seem as far away as when you were in South America. Then, I heard from you occasionally - I saw Helen twice, when she was in the California Hospital with her glorious new baby - Could you have seen her then, you would have been happy - for she looked ^{so} well and joyous - that one wanted to hug her - Her little boy was beautiful and wonderfully strong for such a wee tot - You have a treat in store for you, when you see him - My brother Dr. Hancock, his wife and daughter were in California during July and August, and spent the latter month with me - The doctor painted all the

the time and took home some fine sketches of California scenery - He often talked about you - and the happy times gone by - and wished we might live there over again - Have you heard of the awful automobile accident that befel Mr. Gault?
(Mr. Lukins' son-in-law)?
About a year ago he fell on the car tracks, and
that however did not deter him from running
